

CONSTRUCTION & PLANT

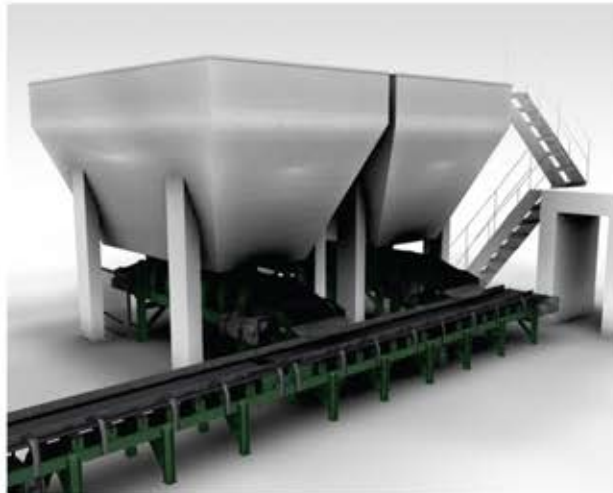

Duravey Bulk Handling specializes in the fabrication and construction of conveyor and mineral processing equipment accompanied by a wealth of engineering & design solutions.

We offer Modular Plants for junior miners with state of the art technology applied for optimal production and durability. The plant equipment we offer are either semi-mobile or stationary with various design capacities to suite your application.

With our highly qualified and experienced design engineering team, we offer our clients an on-site consultation service for problematic materials handling applications, accompanied with a service for the fabrication and construction of the equipment.

Our service offering also include the refurbishment of mobile and mineral processing equipment being it on-site or within our facility.

Duravey Bulk Handling conveyor equipment conforms to all national and international standards and is manufactured to the most outstanding and stringent quality procedures.

We cater for all segments of the conveying industry being it industrial, mining, agricultural and packaging we have the solution at your disposal.

Please feel free to contact our sales team as they are ready to be of assistance.

For more information please contact our qualified sales team on (011) 823 5899 or visit our website on www.duravey.com